Snow 16.1hh Eventer / allrounder

£ 12,500

Description

Snows currently up for sale on behalf of a client who has owned him for 4 years, sheer lack of time forces this sad sale, therefore a 5* home is paramount. Snow is your ultimate allrounder horse, he has done a variety of jobs including BE up to BE100. He looks after his rider and would be ideal for someone wanting to enjoy competing, and having fun whilst being as safe as houses. Snow has 3 very flashy, elegant paces, currently competing at prelim/novice level dressage with good marks, he is always complimented on his paces. He would easily and very quickly go up the levels, as has a very trainable, workman like attitude. Snow really loves his jumping, very rarely has a pole and will jump off any stride. Currently jumping courses of 1m with ease. Training at home up to 1m20. He is not phased by fillers planks etc. Snow is well schooled cross country and truly loves this job, good at steps, ditches, water etc. On the ground you couldn't have a nicer horse, he has a very sweet nature, loves cuddles and attention. At a show snow is a mothers dream, he is good to load, shoe, clip etc. Hacks alone and in company and is good in traffic. He is sensitive around his ears, but does not affect anything you do with him. No vices.
